NFIB Endorses Dan Hall in Race for State Senate in District 40

ST. PAUL, Minn., Sept. 29, 2010—The National Federation of Independent Business’s political action committee, Minnesota Save America’s Free Enterprise Trust, enthusiastically endorsed Dan Hall today in the race against State Sen. John Doll in District 40.

NFIB is the state’s and nation’s largest small business advocacy group with approximately 12,000 members in Minnesota and a significant member base in every district.

Dan Hall is a strong supporter of small business and founded and managed the Open Arms food shelf that delivered food to needy families in Burnsville on a weekly basis for nearly 10 years. He also serves as a volunteer police and fire department chaplain in Burnsville. “He has a tremendous concern for small business and for improving the Minnesota business climate, and that is much appreciated” said State Director Mike Hickey.

On the other hand, Sen. John Doll has a cumulative NFIB voting record of only 44 percent for the years he has served in the Legislature. He has voted against small business on key issues the vast majority of the time.

“When you add it all up, it’s an easy choice for us in District 40” said Hickey. “We strongly and enthusiastically support Dan Hall and urge small business owners across this legislative district to vote for Dan on Election Day.”
